The Roan Mountain Republican: The Republican party has increased wonderfully for the last six months in Watauga, Ashe and Alleghany. Many, many democrats declare that they desire a change in the state affairs.—They say that they were led on promises by the democratic politicians, and at one time were induced to vote with them, thinking that they would fulfil their promises but, as they failed in every particular, they are turning their eyes to another party.

The Superintendent of the Census writes to Col. W. L. Steele, concerning the size of districts for enumerators, as follows:

"In general, every town, township militia district, or other permanent civil division of the county should be constituted an enumeration district, if the estimated population thereof exceeds seven or eight hundred inhabitants. The only reason which this office could recognize as sufficient for making such a civil division a part of a larger enumeration district would be the impossibility of securing a competent and trustworthy enumerator within its own limits.

"The enumeration districts must be made small enough to secure the completion of the canvass within the limit set by the census law, viz.: during the month of June."

CORRESPONDENCE.

WILMINGTON, N. C. Feb., 6 1880.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE POST.

SIR:—

Having just returned from an extensive tour through North Carolina and Virginia I desire to give to our readers some encouragement by stating some facts which came under my observation. I am happy to say that the Wilmington POST bears a greater reputation than any other paper published in this state. In Virginia as well as in our own state I met with great encouragement. The people are alive and nothing seems to give so much satisfaction as to know that the stalwart editor of the POST is sending that noble sheet through the country. A spirit of enthusiasm pervades all classes because the POST supports the man who to day holds the first place in the hearts of the American people as their candidate for the Presidency. There is not a particle of doubt but that Virginia like North Carolina will go solidly for Hon. John Sherman.

Our people are alive to the fact that the present prosperity in every branch of business in this country is due to John Sherman, therefore the POST in supporting his claims coins for itself and its editor golden laurels.

In one place I found a few inclined to a different view, but these latter had not heard anything but such prejudiced ideas as are promulgated by designing men for the accomplishment of their own selfish designs. I am pleased to state that when the case was stated plainly what the views of the POST were, and are now, they were gladly accepted. Your paper does more than any other to open the eyes of the people to the true state of affairs.

At another place I attended a Seyecum and was kindly received by the members and invited to address them. At the close of my address, they unanimously pledged themselves to use every energy to obtain subscribers for the POST, and to support its candidate for the nomination for the Presidency. My tour was a success. Let the POST continue its march. It will and must conquer. The banner of the true Republican which it waves to the breeze floats proudly, and victory will crown its efforts.

Respectfully,

A. B. LIND.

READ.

We stood at an open window
Leaning far over the sill,
And if something hadn't happened
We might have stood there still;
But we reached for a banging shutter
In a blinding northeast breeze,
So our friends will have to be invited
To join in the obsequies.

IF WE COULD ONLY HAVE KNOWN what a storm was brewing (in a teapot) and how far off that shutter was, we should never have ventured our head outside of that window; but it is too late for regrets now, we are nonplussed, completely squelched, have been sat upon, and our friends and the public generally are respectfully invited to attend the obsequies on and we stake our reputation on its being the grandest funeral they ever witnessed.

SATURDAY NEXT

As he slips he slides, and every time he slides he slips up most woefully. We leave our "kind friends" to find out the meaning of the above, and while they are doing so we will ask the following questions:

Havn't we the ugliest and dirtiest store in the State?

Havn't we the poorest stock of goods in Wilmington?

Havn't we made prices much highe since we commenced?

Havn't we been very unaccommodating and impolite to you?

Havn't we charged you for all he goods delivered?

Havn't we made a great many mistakes and refused to correct them when our attention was called thereto?

All of our friends who answer "yes" to the above questions will please not buy from us any more. Respectfully and truly.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

In glancing over last Sunday's paper we regretted to notice the tacit acknowledgment from some of our brother grocers that we had taken away part of their trade, and making an appeal to the others not to leave them. We regret this exceedingly, especially as they were so kind and considerate about our coming to grief, but suppose, as we have determined to do the ever done in Wilmington, we will in the future have to keep from being so tender hearted, and CUT DOWN PRICES a little more.

LARGEST RETAIL GROCERY BUSINESS

THE BLOODY CHASM HAS BEEN BRIDGED OVER.

THE LITTLE JOKERS are not quite gone.

A fine line of TOILET SOAPS received to-day, very low down.

The OLD CAPE FEAR is flourishing and MARTELLE swimming.

We have been over and smoked that "Cigar of Peace," (a fine Havana it was), but still think it would be bad policy to stop furnishing the papers with our fine literary productions, as they have the tendency to keep prices very low, which we, of course, with all other good grocers, desire; only want enough left to pay for clerk's hire, store rent and taxes.

NOT PURITANICAL.

Although opposed to the drinking of Liquors, P. L. BRIDGERS & CO., are not puritanical enough to refuse to sell them, as they think no FIRST CLASS GROCERY STORE can afford to be without; but they promise the ladies that they would never find out there was any on the premises, as it must be taken elsewhere to be drunk.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W, P. CANADAY, Ed'r & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON. N. C..

SUNDAY MORNING, FEB. 8, 1880.

The National Republican has a paragraph, which unintentionally, no doubt, does injustice to our Republican state committee, whom it represents as "stealing" the delegation at large to Chicago. It has been the custom ever since the Republican party of this state was organized to select the delegates at large in that way, excepting when the state convention happened to be held before the national convention. It is done to avoid the expense of a state convention for that special purpose. This year our state convention is not to be held till after the National Convention because our election comes in November. All the ten members of the state committee voted to elect these delegates, including Col. Keogh himself to whom the Republican seems to think some sort of injustice was done. The delegates were understood to be for Mr. Sherman, and the committee stood 7 for Sherman to 3, while Col. Keogh is supporting Grant. But the delegates elected are perfectly acceptable to the Republicans of the state, and men of high character, and have no intention of doing injustice to Col. Keogh, but will support him for the Secretaryship of the National Committee. The "dissatisfaction" about the delegates comes from a few men who have, or think they have, personal grievances against the Secretary of the Treasury, on account of his refusing to permit them to take entire charge of the Treasury Department. They don't amount to a baker's dozen.

The Grant and Blaine men have lately adopted the bulldozing plan in opposing Mr. Sherman. Between bulldozing and lying they expect to succeed. All that is necessary is to let them have free play and they will ruin and disgrace themselves, and disgust the people.

It is necessary to caution the public against some of the journalists of this state who are constantly in the habit of misrepresenting things. We do not see any use in resorting to falsifications or blackguardism. These baseless slanders in which some of these low-minded chaps indulge will be likely to come back to plague them some day, although they may now deceive the public.

The Southern Republican Association at Washington has been considering a resolution denouncing southern Republicans who live at home for managing their own affairs. The fellow who introduced the resolution probably will find it buried out of sight, and probably the Association will have the good sense to mind its own business. The southern Republicans can take care of their own affairs, and will not submit to dictation from outside.

The New York Times, which is chronically hypercriticaly about everything in the whole universe. and even the Universe itself, and such minor matters as the quality of sunlight and the bad arrangement of the planets and the fied stars and sun, and which is constantly unhappy over the mal-formation of the human race, and especially that part of it which constitutes the Republican party, together with the malversations of its statesmen and the blunders of its present minorities in Congress,—this artificial conglomerate of omniscience and impudence has lately discovered that Mr. John Sherman is a mischievous citizen, and the persons who happen to think that he is fit for a candidate for President, are rascals.

Those persons who are putting on long faces because certain people who happen to hold office are exercising their rights as American citizens,would do well to look back to history. In 1876, of the twenty delegates from North Carolina, in the Cincinnatti Convention, eighteen were officers of some kind and twelve were officers of the United States. Among these were Col. Thos. B. Keogh, who was then, as he is now, Commissioner of Bankruptcy, and also Mr. Thomas Powers, of Newberne. We do not recollect that anybody was exasperated at these eighteen officeholders.

The Hickory Press suggests a new ticket for President and Vice-President —Hendricks and Ransom. This is a very large stretch of the imagination, but it is one of those things in which the cart is put before the horse, and where the biggest end is the tail. Senator Ransom is a much safer statesman than Hendricks, and while he fought openly against the Republic, there is about his garments no flavor of such a conspiracy as the "Sons of Liberty."

DISFRANCHISEMENT.

General Grant in his message to Congress, December 6, 1876, said:

"The cumpulsory support of free" "schools and the DISFRANCHISE-" "MENT of all who cannot read and" "write after a fixed probation would" "meet my HEARTY APPROVAL."

How does this suit the colored people of North Carolina. What do the 50,000 whites who cannot read and wright say about it?

THE NORTH CAROLINA OUTLOOK.

In November next there is to be an election in this state for Governor, state officers, members of the legislature, certain county officers, Judges and Members of Congress. There is a growing belief that, if there is a unity of action in the element opposed to the Democrats and a fair election and count, together with a ticket composed of good men, the Republicans can carry the state. It is to be admitted that on all these points difficulties lie in the way. It lies in the power of the Republicans to remove all the difficulties, if they will, excepting those to a fair vote and count. It will be borne in mind that the Democratic legislature elect the magistrates for each county, that the magistrates elect the county commissioners, and that the county commissioners select the poll holders. Anybody can judge what chance there is under such circumstances for a fair vote and count. For, while it is not to be supposed that every magistrate and county commissioner, and consequently every poll holder, will behave fraudulently, it is reasonable to suppose that many will. Therefore there will be many precincts where the vote and the count will be tampered with, if measures are not taken to prevent it.

That we are not speaking at random will appear from past experience. In 1876, our last general voting, Vance was reported as receiving 123,265 votes and Settle 110,256. Total, 233,521. Now, there is probably no man of judgment, who believes that there was any such registration as 233,521 in that year. If the population of the state by the Census of 1870 be taken, 1,071,361, and divided by 5 to get the number of voters, it would give only 214,272 voters. If it were divided by 6, which is a more just estimate probably, it would be only 178,562 votes. But, if we add a sixth of 10 per cent, which is about what the increase would be, the population in 1876 would be 1,135,629, which divided by 5 would leave 227,126, and divided by 6 would leave 189,271 voters. The actual largest increase in a decade from 1820 to 1870 was from 1850 to 1860, 123,583, and this added to the population of 1870 would make the population in 1880 1,194,944, which divided by 6 would leave the voting population 199,107, or 34,414 less than was reported in 1876 in the Settle-Vance campaign. There is no calculation based on facts which could make a vote such as reported in 1876 of 233,521. There must have been fraud somewhere. The further it is looked at the plainer the fraud appears. If the same rate of fraud is applied in 1880 the vote of the state will rise to nearly 250,000. The highest vote ever given previous to 1876 was that reported in the Caldwell-Merrimon campaign in 1872, being a total of 195,361, a very closely contested election, or 38,120 less than was reported in 1876.

We now come back to consider other features of the coming canvass. One is a certain intolerance of opinion which has appeared thus early in some quarters, which has induced criticisms upon the acts of certain members of the Republican party as malignant as they were false. If there is one thing that contributes to the health of a political organization it is a free interchange of opinion until the tickets and the platforms are finally made up. When one person may have different ideas from another as to candidates of whatever class, whether for President or Governor or anything else, and furthers his opinions in reasonable ways, it does not follow that he ought to be assailed by mean flings and falsehoods by members of the party. A broad and generous liberality ought to be accorded to all and tolerated by all members of the Republican party until the preliminary arrangements are made, and then it is best for all to support the platform and the ticket. It is best for the Republicans of North Carolina to subordinate personal grudges if they have any, to forego indecent recriminations, and to cherish a generous emulation towards the welfare of the commonwealth, and the success of liberal principles.

The issues on which the appeal is to be made to the people, aside from the national questions which we will not here discuss, are too various to formulate in this article, but we may touch upon some of them. There is no doubt but the general drift of the legislation since the Democrats have controlled that body is offensive to the people of both parties. If the state needs one thing more than another it is a speedy emancipation from old hidebound ideas, and an advance which will place it in a position to invite capital and intelligence to its borders. Old statutes which are becoming useless and offensive to the people should be abrogated. Our tax system is simply unworthy of us as it is odious to the people. Our system of education is disordered and ineffective, our courts are totally inadequate to the discharge of the business before them, our railroad and internal improvement system is askew, and, indeed, the state government cannot be said to have any policy above the pusillanimous scramblings for precedence in office.

With steadiness and unity on our part and a fair vote and count, we stand a better chance of carrying the state than we have since 1876, when we rolled up a vote of more than 110,000. It will be pleasant in the meantime if we can be let alone by outsiders and such flunkies as under pretense of serving Republicanism are doing what they can to embarrass us.

THE THIRD TIRM HUMBUG.

The Philadelphia Times (Ind.) shows very conclus,vely that ex-Senator Howe is not a very accurate historian when he says that re-eligibility of the President was never opposed in the National Constitntional Convention, and that the most absolutely dominent idea in that body was that he could be elected as often as the people pleased to do it. We copy nearly the whole of the article which is clear and careful in its relation of facts:

In the convention which framed the Constitution several plans were submitted for action; only one of those provided for re-eligibility, that of Mr. Pinckney, of South Carolina, if we except the proposition of Alexander Hamilton, which contemplated an Executive to serve during good behavior. The plan submitted by Edmund Randolph, of Virginia, which was the one taken by the convention as its basis for action, distinctly declared that the Executive should be ineligible a second time, although the number of years of service was not specified. In action upon the Randolph resolutions the convention, in committee of the whole decided that "the national executive should consist of a single person, to be chosen by the national legislature for the term of seven years, and be ineligible a second time." The convention, acting upon the report of the committee, accepted this proposition, making no change in it. It was in that shape when referred to the committee of details, which was instructed to put the resolutions into the form of a constitution and report. This committee of detail consisted of Messrs Rutledge, of South Carolina; Randolph, of Virginia; Gorham, of Massachusetts; Ellsworth, of Connecticut, and Wilson of Pennsylvania. In the draft of the Constitution reported by this committee all that concerned the tenure of office and ineligibility of the Executive was retained, the Executive was given the title of President of the United States and the phrase changed to read: "He shall hold his office during the term of seven years, but shall not be elected a second time." It was after this and during the last two weeks of the convention's sitting that the ineligibility clause was taken out and the term changed from seven years to four years. This was a compromise between those who wanted a simple republican form of government and those who wanted, with Hamilton, an Executive for life. Luther Martin, who was a delegate to the convention from Virginia, in giving an account of the work to the Legislature of this State, said "that there was a party who attempted to have the President appointed during good behavior, without any limitation as to time and not being able to succeed in that attempt they then endeavored to have him re-eligible without any restraint. It was objected that the choice of a President to continue in office during good behavior would be at once rendering our system an elective monarchy; and if the President was to be re-eligible it would amount to nearly the same thing." He says the party "by never losing sight of their object, and choosing a proper time for their purpose, succeeded at length in obtaining the alteration, which was not made until within the last twelve days before the convention adjourned."—This does not look much as if the convention had refused repeatedly, and as often as the point was presented, to take grounds against re-eligibility.—The further fact may as well be considered that George Washington was the president of that convention, and doubtless understood the spirit of the body and of the Constitution which it framed as well as any one. He declined a third term with a warning to the country of the dangers likely to grow out of the continuance in power of one man. There is a great deal in this to reflect on just now.

NATIONAL EDUCATION FOR THE SOUTH.

Senator Hoar of Massachusetts has introduced a bill in the Senate providing that the net proceeds from the sale of the public lands as well as such funds as may be paid in from railroads in accordance with previous conditions, shall be devoted "to establish an educational fund, and to apply the proceeds of the public lands to the education of the people." The act provides also that this fund shall be distributed to the states in proportion to the illiteracy of the people, for a period of ten years. For instance, under the effects of the bill the state having the largest ratio of ignorance or illiteracy in proportion to its population would get the most. Take the two states of New Jersey and Alabama. The former had in 1870 a population of 906,096, with only 37,057 who could not read and write, while the latter with a population of 996,992 had 349,771 who could not read and write. Thus Alabama would get nearly nine times as much as New Jersey. Thus also Wisconsin which had in 1870 a population of 1,054,670 with an illiteracy of only 25,031, while North Carolina with a population of 1,071,361 with an illiteracy of 339,789 would get nine times as much money as Wisconsin. There was only 90,892 difference in population between Alabama and New Jersey, and yet Alabama would get nine times as much school money as New Jersey, and while there was only 16,691 difference between North Carolina and Wisconsin, North Carolina would get nine times as much as Wisconsin, each on account of their relative illiteracy.

Here would be more than a million dollars annually to be divided among the states. In this distribution for the first ten years the southern states, the old slave states, would get from 60 to 90 per cent of the whole fund. It is impossible to calculate the results to the south of the judicious distribution over the south of this magnificent benefaction for the education of the children and youth provided this bill were to pass. Untold, indeed, would be the benefits which would come to our educational interests, and to the youth of both races. It would, indeed, open a new era to the south, for the increase of intelligence among the people, an increased culture of the human faculties, always brings with them an increased productiveness of all that contributes to a higher civilization.

Something more than a year ago the POST in noticing a small pamphlet, suggesting this distribution of the money derived from the sale of lands, printed an elaborate article advocating substantially this measure. It is to be said that, now that the subject has been taken in Congress, too much care cannot be exercised in perfecting the bill, so that if it passes, it may subserve the great purpose for which it is designed. It is undoubtedly the duty of the government by whose act this mass of illiteracy was introduced into the government as a power in affairs, to make decisive provision for educating and elevating that element. It is true that this bill of Mr. Hoar will benefit the illiterate whites of the south as well as the colored, and it should be the duty of all citizens, if this great boon is granted, to aid in its proper and judicious expenditure.

AGAINST THE THIRD TERM.

THE CHOICE OF A LEAN MINORITY.

From the Philadelphia Press (rep.) Feb. 2.

The ex-President is not the choice of the republicans of Pennsylvania. His nomination is not desired by them. He is not the choice of even a considerable number. He is the choice of the leanest minority who ever undertook to make any man a nominee. Yet this minority have possession of the machinery or organization, and by preventing the holding of conventions they have succeeded in many places in stifling the voice of the people. The republican masses look with disgust upon this unscrupulous defiance of the popular will.

MASSACHUSETIS FOR THE BEST MAN.

From the Boston Journal (rep.) Feb. 2.

The man who assumes that Msssachusetts is either for the ex-President, or Blaine, or Sherman to-day and that it will send a delegation to the National Convention pledged to either of these men, is not entitled to credit. The majority of the republican voters of Massachusetts to-day ask for the standard bearer for 1880 who can command the largest vote. Because this has not yet been ascertained many of the delegates from Massachusetts will go to Chicago unpledged.

THE TIME FOR WITHDRAWAL.

From the St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald (rep.) Jan. 30.

Senator Cameron, with all his skill and power, must yield to the opposition. But how is the ex-President to be retired with honor? We submit that the time has come when his name should be formally withdrawn as a matter of justice to himself.

AN IMPOSSIBILITY.

From the Philadelphia Telegraph (rep.) Feb. 2.

It is perfectly clear that the ex-President cannot be the next President of the United States. He possibly can be nominated; but by no earthly possibility can he be voted for by enough republicans to secure his election.

JOHN SHERMAN

Has as clear a record, as by his votes and speeches, since 1854, as any Republican in the United States.

Receipts of the Government.

A LARGE INCREASE DURING THE LAST SIX MONTHS OF 1879.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The following statement, taken from the books of the Treasury Department, shows the receips and expenditures of the Government for the six months ending Dec. 31, 1879, compared with the corresponding six months of the preceding year;

	1878.	1879.
Customs	$67,915 785	$84,837 378
Internal rev.	57,738.331	60,979.245
Miscellane's	15,513 763	13,496.013
Total	$141.167.889	$159,312 636

The above figures show a net increase for the six months of $18,144,747. The increase in Customs and internal revenue receipts, which alone indicate the business condition of the country, was $20,162,507. This rate of increase was more than maintained during the month juft closed, the receipts from Customs being, in round numbers, $15,000,000, against $10,250,000 in January, 1879, and from internal revenue, $19,000,000 during January, 1880, against $8,000,000 during January, 1879, an increase in favor of last month of about $7,000,000.

The expenditures for the two periods above compared were as follows:

	1878.	1879.
Ordinary	$83,653.344	$101,902.497
Interest public debt	51,472.297	51,444,960
Total	$135,125,641	$153,347.457

The ordinary expenditures for 1878, include $5,500,000 paid on account of the Fisheries award, and those for 1879 include about $20,000,000 paid on account of arrearages of pensions. These two sums were really extraordinary expenditures, and deducting them from the figures above given will show a net surplus for the six months ending Dec. 31, 1879, of about $26,000,000 against about $11,500,000 for the corresponding period of the preceding year.

FROM OLD CARTERET.

EDITOR POST. — While traveling through a portion of Carteret a few days since on a visit to Beaufort, I made it a point to see and converse with a number of Republicans, and was pleased to find that the party in that section of the county, as well as in my own, was in a united and healthy condition, with a hearty good feeling prevailing, and all seemed ready to buckle on their armor in the approaching Presidential contest, which we know is to be a hardiy contested one.

The almost unanimous choice of our people for the Presidency is Secretary Sherman, and for Vice-President, Judge Settle; with this, for our National ticket, and Hon. Ralph P. Buxton as our candidate for Governor, the people will feel that they have something to work for and something to hope for, and will go into the canvass with a determination to put forth every effort to secure that success which we so much desire and which is so necessary to the well-being of the nation. We know who and what Mr. Sherman is, and we can trust ourselves in his hands, knowing that the power of the government under his administration will be used if necessary for the protection of all the citizens of the Republic in the exercise of every right guaranteed by the Constitution, and that the party in the south will not be left to languish in shackles, as it has been, for the want of that consideration it should receive at the hands of those who ought to be its friends at headquarters.

An administration, such as he would give us, would continue the country on the high road to prosperity for which he has so honestly and earnestly been laboring for years in the Senate as well as in the cabinet. By all means let us have John Sherman for President, and Ralph P. Buxton for Governor, and the hearts of all the people will be made glad.

Total Abstinence in the White House

The Rev. Lyman Abbott's Washington Letter in The Christian Union.

The ladies would generally vote for Mrs. Hayes for a second term. It is safe to say that no lady in the present generation has produced a more favorable impression by the grace and simplicity of her manners in presiding at the White House than has she. It is worth a journey to Washington to see so simple and unconventional a lady at the very head of the best American society. Her portraits do her scant justice. Her face is wonderfully mobile; it constantly expresses her own genuine enjoyment in the enjoyment of her guests. Her laugh is contagious; and it would be as impossible for a photograph or even a portrait to picture the life that sparkles in her face as for a picture to portray the sunshine that dances on the dimpled surface of a lake which ever and anon breaks out into a quite rippled laughter.

Her social victory is complete, and has been won after a hard battle. The story has been told before but it is worth retelling. She came to Washington determined not to offer wine to her guests; this was the determination of a lifetime, and she would not and could not abandon it. To give a state dinner without wine was declared to be impossible; all Washington society was opposed to her; I believe it even became a Cabinet question. For a year she was a target for the sort of arrows which it is so hard for any woman to bear unflinchingly. But she bore it all; by her patient persistence and her tact she carried the day and conquered Mrs. Grundy in her own field. She never has offered wine; Washington follows her lead; and I doubt whether any state capital, not excluding the capital of Maine, is a more thoroughly temperance city than Washington to-day.

The exclusion of wines and liquors from the Capitol dates from the days of Senator Wilson, but I judge that public sentiment has grown stronger, and that the exclusion is more complete now than ever before. As you go to Capitol Hill along Pennsylvania-ave. you come to a liquor shop with a sign extending out over the sidewalk. On it are the words: "The Last Chance." On the reverse side, seen as you come back from the Capitol, are the words: "The First Chance." Possibly a man who understands the appropriate signals can find a chance for a drink at the House or Senate restaurant; but nothing stronger than lager is drank publicly.

The Poor Clerks of London.

From The Standard.

The reason given by another clerk for the poverty of the class to which he belongsd was curious. He said that the enormous influx of Germans into the country had lessened the price of clerks' labor. "They actually offer to come," said he, "for six months without any salary at all, if it is agreed that at the end of that time they shall have £60 or £70 a year for their work. They live mostly in the North of London, and walk to their work. What they eat at home I don't know; but in the City here they go to alamode-beef shops, where they can get a plate of thick stew or a small piece of corned beef for six pence, and that, with some bread and a glass of water, is sufficient for them. They can even get sauerkrout for two pence, and some of them eat that only and bread. Many of them club together in two, and even threes, for one bedroom in Islington, and there live at the rate of about 3 shillings a week apiece.

"You see they possess a great advantage over English clerks. They know German naturally; English they have learned, and some of them speak French. English clerks, as a rule, only know their own language. The employers find that Germans can keep accounts just as well as Englishmen, that they will not object to work as late or as early as may be requested, and that they want next to nothing in the shape of salary. These are great considerations, especially in hard times, and those who have large offices cannot overlook them. Then, again, with the exception of the head clerks, the work which shippers', merchants' and brokers' clerks have to do is very easy, and really not worth large pay; it might almost always be done by mere lads."

Mr. Edison is now studying up machinery belting, in order to improve the connection between his engine and his electro-motors. As to the cracking of his lamps, he says: "It bothered me at first, for it amounted to one lamp in seventy-five every day. This would never do, though I believe it is much under the average of the cracking of lamp chimneys. I am now cutting down the average of breakage every day. The lamp on the table is one I have improved. You perhaps know that the trouble is caused by the expansion of the metal wires which pass through the glass. This causes the glass, which is rigid, to crack. You notice the small inner globe, through which the wires pass, is now coated with a glass of a different nature from that of which the lamp is made, and being slightly opalized, is clearly visible. These two kinds of glass are affected by heat at a different ratio, and thus the cause which leads to the cracking is counteracted." As to the claims of others to the horseshoe device, he says: "This is absurd. I don't myself claim the horseshoe carbon as a novelty, and thought so little of it that I did not even patent it." He adds: "I don't want any advertising, and prefer to keep quiet here until all arrangements are complete for opening a station in New-York City for the public use of the light; then all will see it and can judge of its merits."

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.—Contents. The Catholic Church and Modern Society by Cardinal Manning; The Third Term, Hon. T. O Howe; M. de Lesseps and his Canal, Rear Admiral Ammen; Now and Then in America, Geo. Augustus Sala; The Emancipation Proclamation, Pres. James C. Willing. We shall notice ex-Senator Howe's article elsewhere. Admiral Ammen gives a plain answer and a very conclusive one to M. de Lesseps, on the Darien Canal, and the article by Sala is entertaining, and that by Pres. Willing is instructive. This old monthly, which used in our young days to be heavy with articles from such scholars as Hugh S. Legare, and Lewis Cass, is on the highest plane of intellectual activity.

The annual prize of 25,000 francs ($5,000) given by the King of the Belgians for works of a scientific character is now offered for 1881. It will be awarded to the author of the best work on the means of improving seaports situated upon low and sandy coasts, such as the Belgian ports.

JEWELRY

$75.00 worth for $15.00

—) AND (—

Solid Abysinian Gold Watch

FREE!

The above offer is genuine, although at first sight you would consider it impossible. We will explain; Since we first established our business here, March 1st, 1878, we have paid particular attention to the buying of Bankrupt and Auction lots of Jewelry and Watches, often buying at as low as one-tenth their value, and in no instance have we paid over one-sixth the manufacturers' price. Since starting we have always been able to dispose of these goods in Chicago and through our regular customers throughout the country at nearly regular prices, as fast as we could procure them, but owing to the large number of failures among the heavies dealers and manufacturers throughout this and other countries during the months of June, July and August (the time when the Jewelry business is stagnant), we have now on hand an immense stock of the most desirable goods we have ever handled, and which we have bought at lower prices than ever before. In order to dispose of this entire stock in the most speedy manner possible, and make room for new ones which we shall continue to buy, we have hit upon the following novel plan:

We propose to give you a list of the most desirable of these goods, giving opposite each article its regular retail value, and sell to you at the rate of Five Dollars' worth for $1.00. For instance, on receipt of 50 cts. we will send you, POSTPAID, any article to the value of $2.50; on receipt of $1.00 articles to the value of $5.00, and so on throughout the entire list. Below we give a list of the most valuable of these goods.

Read What the Chicago Press Say of Us, And Send In Your Orders.

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 8, says: "We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington Street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do, they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for the concern since its first publication, and we have yet to hear of the first complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 3d, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington Street, Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial."

The American Stockman, Sept. 11th, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and responsible, and consequently persons need have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

As to our responsibility we also refer you to the following firms: Blomgren Bros. 162 & 164 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.; Miller, Wagner & Umbdenstock, 119 So. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Sulphur in Diptheria.

A recent medical writer says: Should any of your family be attacked with diptheria do not be alarmed, as it is usually speedily cured without a doctor. When it was raging in England a few years ago, I accompanied Dr. Field on his round to witness the so-called wonderful cures he performed while the patients of others dropped off on all sides. The remedy to be so rapid, must be simple. All he took with him was powdered sulphur and a quill, and with these he cured every patient without exception. He put a teaspoonful of flower of brimstoue into a wineglass of water, and mixed it with his finger instead of a spoon, as the sulphur does not readily amalgamate with water.—When the sulphur was well mixed he gave it as a gargle, and in ten minutes the patient was out of danger.

Brimstone kills every species of fungus in man, beast and plant in a few minutes. Instead of spitting out the gargle he recommended the swallowing of it. In extreme cases in which he had been called just in the nick of time, when the fungus was too nearly closing to allow the gargling, he blew the sulphur through a quill into the throat, and after the fungus had shrunk to allow of it, then the gargling.

If the patient cannot gargle, take a live coal, put it on a shovel and sprinkle a spoonful or two of the flour of brimstone at a time on it: let the sufferer inhale it, holding the head over it, and the fungus will die. If plentifully used the whole room may be filled almost to suffocation, and the patient will be able to walk about in it, inhaling the fume with the doors and windows closed. The mode of fumigating a room with sulphur has often caused most violent attacks of cold in the head, chest, etc., and is also recommended in cases of consumption and asthma.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, It hath pleased Almighty God in his all wise providence, to take out of our midst our beloved friend and sister, Alice Avant, whose loss we so deeply deplore and lament, sister Alice was a consistent member of St. Luke's Sabbath School, always punctual in her attendance, faithful to her duties, upright in her deportment, beloved and highly respected by all who knew her, her examaple was one worthy of imitation, proving the proverb, "He that humbleth himself shall be exalted," therefore,

Resolved, That, while we humbly submit to the divine will of a just and merciful God, in whose hands are the destinies of all men, we feel that the position which she occupied among us cannot easily be filled.

Resolved, That a blank page on the Book of Records be held sacred to her memory, bearing her name, age, and the date of her death.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the bereaved family, as a testimony of our high appreciation of her worth, with our most heartfelt sympathy for them.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the WILMINGTON POST for publication.

Teachers and pupils of St. Luke's Sabbath School.

HENRY ELLIS, Supt.
WILMINGTON, N. C., Dec. 23, 1879.

A lady contributor tells this story:—"I had been out in Westchester county on a visit, and while there I found a kitten which I brought as a plaything for my two children. To prevent any dispute about the ownership of puss, I proposed, and it was agreed, that the head should be mine, the body should be the baby's and Eddy the eldest, but three years, should be the sole proprietor of the long beautiful tail. Eddy rather objected at first to this division, as putting him off with an extremely small share of the animal, but soon became reconciled to the division, and quite proud of his ownership in the graceful terminus of the kitten. One day soon after I heard poor puss making a dreadful mewing, and called out to Eddy, "There, my son, you are hurting my part of the kitten; I heard her cry.' 'No, I didn't mother; I trod on my part and your part hollered.'"

The Secretary of War transmitted to the Senate, Jan. 12, a copy of a report of a surrey made on the Peninsula of Maryland and Delaware for the construction of a ship canal to connect the waters of the Delaware and Chesapeake bays. Six routes are estimated for. The Sassafras route is the shortest in time and the cheapest route, but has very expensive approaches to maintain and very serious conditions to be overcome if it is to be used during the winter. It is 129.25 miles long, the canal proper being 16 20 miles. The estimated cost is $8,500,000. The saving in time is eighteen and one-tenth hours and in miles 196.

OLD, TRIED, AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-all, hollow horn, grub, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, FEB. 8. 1880.

FROM WASHINGTON

CONGRESS DOING NOTHING—THE DEMOCRATS HAVE LOST THEIR GRIP—THEY BACK DOWN ON THE "RIDER" BUSINESS.—SECRETARY SHERMAN'S SUCCESS, A SURPRISE—SECRETERY SCHRUZ AND CIVIL SERVICE REFORM—PARNELL IN WASHINGTON—JAMES GORDON BENNETT'S MAGNIFICENT CHARITY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4, 1880.

THEN AND NOW.

Congress is still doing nothing. In the House the members are discussing the new rules. They are now talking about rule eighteen, and twenty-six more are yet to be talked about. In fact these new rules are are the pad-lock on the Democratic mouth. They take precedence, until finally disposed of over all other business. How long this state of quiet will last no one can tell. Even the much predicted and long expected debate on finance has been kept down by the expedient of the these rules. But the full extent to which the Democratic mouth has been muzzled can only be seen by comparing the extra session of last spring with the Congress of this winter. Then the Bourbon Democrats asserted that they were the whole government. They not only possessed the keys but the power to bind and to loose. Then they caucussed by night and threatened and ranted by day, until the air was filled the din. Then they were so full of fight that they could hardly be restrained. Now how mild. Not a Republican in either House of Congress has been able to pick a quarrel on any subject whatever.

"DEMOCRATS SEEM TO HAVE LOST THIER GRIP,"

said Senator Matt Carpenter, the other evening. The are afraid to do anything. "They dare not even attempt to investigate any more for they have found that they hurt themselves more than they hurt us. They will not even talk. Why, d—n them! have n't grit enough left to pull a shad off a gridiron."

Last session they went so far that they lost the confidence of the people. This session they seem to be acting on the belief that by refraining from evil they will regain that confidence. Already the party papers are calling upon them to do something, and still the debate on the rules goes steadily on. We should return thanks that it is so. We are escaping a heap of mischievous or senseless talk—and some vicious legislation. The climax to the present lamb-like disposition of the Democratic party was reached Tuesday last during the debate on the rules, when Speaker Randall, Sunset Cox, and another Democratic member announced that they were opposed to any thing like tacking legislation to appropriation bills or in other words, putting riders on them. This is precisely what the extra session was for. It is the point, the whole row was about last winter. Then these very gentlemen insisted that they had not only the power, but that it was right, and wise, and just to do so.

SHERMAN IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The recent election of Sherman delegates at large to the National Republican Convention is one of the political sensations. It is now conceded that the whole delegation from the Old North State will be for Secretary Sherman. This result in a state which had been counted as sure for Grant is like thunder from a clear sky. Now, political wise ones will tell you that Virginia, South Carolina, Florida and Georgia will follow the example of North Carolina. The evident skill with which Mr. Sherman's friends managed their campaign shows that they are fully able to successfully follow up the advantage they have so cleverly gained. It is also hailed, here, as the beginning of a new era in North Carolina politics.

But to return to my subject. Mr. Sherman's unexpected victory in North Carolina and the belief that it is but the forerunner of others, has been the means of attracting renewed attention to his position in the coming campaign. It now looks as though he would go into convention with nearly if not quite as many votes as Mr. Blaine, and with a chance of getting the bulk of the Grant men when they break from their man. For, it is understood that unless the convention should be unanimous General Grant will not allow his name to be used. So, the Sherman boom is a boom indeed. One thing is sure, however, and that is that Mr. Sherman and his friends hold the key to the position and can make their own terms.

INDIAN COMMISSIONER HAYT BOUNCED.

Secretary Schurz forced his friend Hayt on the President. That fact is well known. "I will make the Indian bureau one of cleanest and best conducted departments this government has ever had, if I live and hold my place during this administration," said Mr. Schurz to a prominent Member of Congress over a year ago. Said another member, "I have called on Secretary Schurz probably forty times, and if Hayt was in Washington I always found him in Mr. Schurz's private room." Not only was there the officia intimacy, but Mr. Hayt was a constant visitor at the Secretary's house. It was in this Indian bureau that civil service reform was to work its perfect cure. It was Mr. Schurz who injected into the President's last annual message more talk about civil service reform than was given to any other one subject. The collapse of the system is only equalled by the downfall of the commissioner.

HON. CHARLES STEWART PARNELL,

A member of the English Parliament, and party are in town. He came Monday evening last, and spoke to a crowd that filled every available space in the Hall of the House of Representatives, which had been granted for that purpose. His theme was the present widespread famine which prevails in Ireland and the causes of it. Speaker Randall introduced him. Wednesday he was presented to the President, after which he called upon the members of the Cabinet. Mr. Parnell has managed to excite some distrust by the use of intemperate language in criticising the character of noted English and Irish people connected with a relief organization at Dublin. At Springfield Massachuscttts his language pressed the verge of decency, and has called down upon him sharp rebukes from the press. He seems disposed to give such shape to his labors here as will help on the violent political agitation for "Home Rule" in Ireland, of which he is the leader.

Relief for the starving thousands in Ireland is most commendable, but to help on the projects of a political agitator who takes advantage of the distress of his countrymen to vault into power, is quite another affair. His reception here was not enthusiastic. He is on the whole a good man to let alone.

HOW AMERICANS GIVE

In most marked contrast to the political parade of the Irish members of Parliament is that of the New York Herald. Yesterday the action of that paper was the theme on almost every tongue in the City To give an exhaustive statement showing how bitter and wide-spread the distress, and how great the necessity for large and immediate relief, was a good thing for the Herald to do. But to open a relief fund and to head the list with $100,000 is more than princely generosity. The Queen of England possesses a private fortune of thousands of pounds where Mr. Bennett has hundreds of dollars. She gave £5,000, or about $25,000. 'Twas her duty to give freely.

Americans should feel a just pride in the fact that an American has given this delicate rebuke to an Empress.

THE BEST REMEDY

FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, FEB. 8, 1880.

FROM WASHINGTON

CONGRESS DOING NOTHING—THE DEMOCRATS HAVE LOST THEIR GRIP—THEY BACK DOWN ON THE "RIDER" BUSINESS.—SECRETARY SHERMAN'S SUCCESS, A SURPRISE—SECRETERY SCHRUZ AND CIVIL SERVICE REFORM—PARNELL IN WASHINGTON—JAMES GORDON BENNETT'S MAGNIFICENT CHARITY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 4, 1880.

THEN AND NOW.

Congress is still doing nothing. In the House the members are discussing the new rules. They are now talking about rule eighteen, and twenty-six more are yet to be talked about. In fact these new rules are the padlock on the Democratic mouth. They take precedence, until finally disposed of over all other business. How long this state of quiet will last no one can tell. Even the much predicted and long expected debate on finance has been kept down by the expedient of the these rules. But the full extent to which the Democratic mouth has been muzzled can only be seen by comparing the extra session of last spring with the Congress of this winter. Then the Bourbon Democrats asserted that they were the whole government. They not only possessed the keys but the power to bind and to loose. Then they cancussed by night and threatened and ranted by day, until the air was filled the din. Then they were so full of fight that they could hardly be restrained. Now how mild. Not a Republican in either House of Congress has been able to pick a quarrel on any subject whatever.

"DEMOCRATS SEEM TO HAVE LOST THIER GRIP,"

said Senator Matt Carpenter, the other evening. The are afraid to do anything. "They dare not even attempt to investigate any more for they have found that they hurt themselves more than they hurt us. They will not even kick. Why, d—n them! have n't grit enough left to pull a shad off a gridiron."

Last session they went so far that they lost the confidence of the people. This session they seem to be acting on the belief that by refraining from evil they will regain that confidence. Already the party papers are calling upon them to do something, and still the debate on the rules goes steadily on. We should return thanks that it is so. We are escaping a heap of mischievous or senseless tak—and some vicious legislation. The climax to the present Lamb-like disposition of the Democratic party was reached Tuesday last during the debate on the rules, when Speaker Randall, Sunset Cox, and another Democratic member announced that they were opposed to any thing like tacking legislation to appropriation bills or in other words, putting riders on them. This is precisely what the extra session was for. It is the point, the whole row was about last winter. Then these very gentlemen insisted that they had not only the power, but that it was right, and wise, and just to do so.

SHERMAN IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The recent election of Sherman delegates at large to the National Republican Convention is one of the political sensations. It is now conceded that the whole delegation from the Old North State will be for Secretary Sherman. This result in a state which had been counted as sure for Grant is like thunder from a clear sky. Now, political wise ones will tell you that Virginia, South Carolina, Florida and Georgia will follow the example of North Carolina. The evident skill with which Mr. Sherman's friends managed their campaign shows that they are fully able to successfully follow up the advantage they have so cleverly gained. It is also hailed, here, as the beginning of a new era in North Carolina politics.

But to return to my subject. Mr. Sherman's unexpected victory in North Carolina and the belief that it is but the forerunner of others, has been the means of attracting renewed attention to his position in the coming campaign. It now looks as though he would go into convention with nearly if not quite as many votes as Mr. Blaine, and with a chance for pulling the half of the Grant men when they break from their man. For, it is understood that unless the convention should be unanimous General Grant will not allow his name to be used. So, the Sherman boom is a boom indeed. One thing is sure, however, and that is that Mr. Sherman and his friends hold the key to the position and can make their own terms.

INDIAN COMMISSIONER HAYT BOUNCED.

Secretary Schurz forced his friend Hayt on the President. That fact is well known. "I will make the Indian bureau one of cleanest and best conducted departments this government has ever had, if I live and hold my place during this administration" said Mr. Schurz to a prominent Member of Congress over a year ago. Said another member, "I have called on Secretary Schurz probably forty times, and if Hayt was in Washington I always found him in Mr. Schurz's private room." Not only was there the official intimacy, but Mr. Hayt was a constant visiter at the Secretary's house. It was in this Indian bureau that civil service reform was to work its perfect cure. It was Mr. Schurz who injected into the President's last annual message more talk about civil service reform than was given to any other one subject. The collapse of the system is only equalled by the downfall of the commissioner.

HON. CHARLES STEWART PARNELL,

A member of the English Parliament, and party are in town. He came Monday evening last, and spoke to a crowd that filled every available space in the Hall of the House of Representatives, which had been granted for that purpose. His theme was the present widespread famine which prevails in Ireland and the causes of it. Speaker Randall introduced him. Wednesday he was presented to the President, after which he called upon the members of the Cabinet. Mr. Parnell has managed to excite some distrust by the use of intemperate language in criticising the character of noted English and Irish people connected with a relief organization at Dublin. At Springfield Massachusetts his language pressed the verge of decency, and has called down upon him sharp rebukes from the press. He seems disposed to give such shape to his labors here as will help on the violent political agitation for "Home Rule" in Ireland, of which he is the leader.

Relief for the starving thousands in Ireland is most commendable, but to help on the projects of a political agitator who takes advantage of the distress of his countrymen to vault into power, is quite another affair. His reception here was not enthusiastic. He is on the whole a good man to let alone.

HOW AMERICANS GIVE

In most marked contrast to the political parade of the Irish members of Parliament is that of the New York Herald. Yesterday the action of that paper was the theme on almost every tongue in the City To give an exhaustive statement showing how bitter and wide-spread the distress, and how great the necessity for large and immediate relief, was a good thing for the Herald to do. But to open a relief fund and to head the list with $100,000 is more than princely generosity. The Queen of England possesses a private fortune of thousands of pounds where Mr. Bennett has hundreds of dollars. She gave £5,000, or about $25,000. 'Twas her duty to give freely.

Americans should feel a just pride in the fact that an American has given this delicate rebuke to an Empress.

THE BEST REMEDY

FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

They give unfailing satisfaction. All their work is warranted. They have received testimonials from all parts of the county of purport similar to the following, hundreds of which are on file subject to inspection:

Messrs. EMERSON, FISHER & Co.: GALVA, ILLS., July 16, 1879.
I have used one of your Top Buggies three years, and three of them two years in my livery stable, and they have given me perfect satisfaction and are in constant use.
OSCAR SMALLEY.

Messrs. COPPOCK & JOHNSON: NEWBERRY, S. C., July 17, 1879.
Dear Sirs:—I have been using the Emerson & Fisher Buggy I bought from you as roughly I suppose as any one could. A. M. TEAGUE, Farmer.

The favorable reputation the Carriages have made in localities where they have been used for several years by Liverymen, Physicians, Farmers and others requiring hard and constant use, has led to an increased demand from those localities, to meet which the manufacturing facilities of their mammouth establishment have been extended, enabling them now to turn out in good style.

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER

That the public may be protected against Imitations and Fraud we specially caution all purchasers of BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS to see that the word CAPCINE on each plaster is spelled correctly. Do not allow some other plester to be palmed off under similar sounding names, with the assurance that it is the same thing or as good. Bear in mind that the only object such vendors can have is the fact that they can buy imitations at half the price of the genuine, and they hope by this substitution to gain a small additional profit.
